How do I figure out which car is right for me?

You can use the ACRISS system detailed above to find the car that suits your needs. This is an internationally recognised code that will ensure that you get the same standard of vehicle wherever you rent.

Automatic and Manual Transmissions

Yes, automatic cars are available in Ireland,. However, they are generally more expensive than manual cars and not as readily available.

Do I need a Credit card?

Yes. A credit card will be needed when collecting your vehicle and used for a security bond. The deposit is generally the insurance excess of the rental car, which depends on the category of vehicle you have booked and the rate type.

Collecting at an Airport in Ireland

At most Irish airports you will find your rental company has a desk in the arrivals hall, with the rental cars located within walking distance. However, at smaller airports you may be required to collect your vehicle from a downtown depot. A courtesy transfer will be provided from the airport to the depot in this instance. Auto Europe offers all-inclusive prices which generally include any location / airport fees and charges that may otherwise apply. Remember to check at the time of booking to ensure your rental will include all airport fees.

Rental Vehicle Insurance

Irish law requires all vehicles to have compulsory third party (CTP) injury insurance, although your car rental supplier should already have comprehensive insurance covering their cars. In the case of an accident, it must be reported to the insurance provider immediately and an excess will be due.

Car Rental Companies in Ireland will normally include:

- Third Party Insurance and compulsory insurance will be included in your car hire price. This covers you for other people's injury and damage to their vehicle.
- Collision Damage Waiver (CDW): This limits your financial liability for damage to the rented vehicle and is normally included in prepaid car hire prices. Rentals are normally subject to liability excess, which can be reduced at the time you collect your rental car or by taking out Auto Europe Excess Refund Insurance.
- Theft and Loss Cover: This limits your financial liability for the loss or theft of the rented vehicle and is generally included in the prepaid car rental price.
- Fire and Liability: Limits your financial liability for bodily injury or death, and is normally included in the prepaid car hire price.
- Personal Accident Insurance: This covers the driver for personal injuries and is generally not included in your car rental rate. It is considered an optional extra that you can take out upon collection of the car.

Auto Europe Excess Refund Insurance

When renting a vehicle, the rental rates include basic insurance. However, in the event that the vehicle is stolen or accidentally damaged, there is usually an insurance excess amount which the driver is liable to pay to the rental company. To avoid any unexpected costs opt for Auto Europe Excess Refund Insurance which will offer a reimbursement for the supplier's damage and theft excess to a maximum for AU$5,000. Simply add this onto your car rental booking prior to departure and you could save thousands of dollars in case of an accident. To find out more, simply call Auto Europe on 0800 885 052 or visit the Auto Europe website.

The Auto Europe Hire Car Excess Refund Insurance is managed by Accident & Health International Underwriting Pty Limited, ABN 26 053 335 952, AFSL 238261 and underwritten by CGU Insurance Limited, ABN 27 004 478 371, AFSL 238291.

Driving Rules

Driving In Ireland

- Drive on the left in Ireland; the driver sits on the right-hand side of the vehicle.
- Familiarise yourself with the rental car and controls.
- Review the road signs.
- Respect the right of way.
- Check your fuel gage! In rural areas, few petrol stations exist and there are substantial distances between them, so try to keep the tank full.
- Avoid illegal parking, which will result in fines or towing. Any fees or damage will most often not be covered by insurance, so make sure your car is parked legally.
- Expect the unexpected. The majority of driving you'll do in Ireland is in rural countryside, so don't be surprised by the unexpected farm machinery or herd of sheep on the road. Remember to drive cautiously.
- Traffic in Dublin can be heavy and parking is often expensive. However, there are many options for public transportation in and around the city.

Irish Driving Laws

- Seatbelts must be worn at all times in the front and the back of the vehicle.
- Motorcyclists and their passengers must wear helmets.
- Do not drink and drive. The blood alcohol content limit in Ireland is 0.08%. Those who drive above this level face imprisonment.
- In both the Republic and Northern Ireland, speed limits are 30mph/50kmph in built-up areas, 60mph/100kph on the open road and 100mph/110kph on the motorway.
- Children under 12 cannot ride in the front seat.
- Horns are not to be used between 11.30pm and 7.00am.
- It is against the law to use a mobile phone while driving
- Cars already on a roundabout always have the right of way. At unmarked crossings, give way to vehicles approaching from the right.
- In the Republic of Ireland, yellow signs with black markings will give instructions at marked crossings - a graphic approximation of the layout with thick lines denoting the right of way and thinner lines representing roads that have to give way.

Toll Roads in Ireland

Tolls are present throughout Ireland and rates vary depending on vehicle type. Expect to pay anywhere from €1.00 to €3.10 for tolls. It is advisable to keep smaller denominations of currency available when travelling long distances

Parking in Ireland

Yellow lines indicate parking restrictions.

Double yellow lines mean no parking at any time.

Single yellow line mean no parking from 8.00am to 6.30pm Monday to Saturday.

Broken yellow lines mean there are restrictions which will be outlined on nearby signage.

Pay-and-Display - normally found in major towns and cities: enter the money for the required amount of time, collect the ticket and display the ticket clearly on the dashboard.

Do you have car hire depots at the ferry ports?

Yes, you can collect your car from Dun Laoghaire ferry port.

Type of Restraint	Weight	Approx Age
Group 0: forward facing seat	>10kg	Birth to 6-9 months
Groups 0+ : rearward facing seat	>13kg	Birth to 12-15 months
Group 1: forward facing seat	9-18kg	9 months—4 years
Group 2 : booster seat	12-25kg	4-6 years
Group 3 : booster cushion	22-36kg	6-11 years

Can I travel between Republic of Ireland & Northern Ireland?

Depending on the supplier, car rental companies will sometimes charge a Cross Border Fee to travel from the Republic of Ireland to Northern Ireland. Some companies require drivers attain written permission from the hire company to travel into Northern Ireland, as well as Wales, England and Scotland and may face substantial fines to travel to other countries without permission. The cost to travel from Northern Ireland to the Republic of Ireland will vary depending on the car hire supplier and often depends on the length of the time spent abroad. Check the details of your car rental before you book to ensure that you are aware of any additional charges.

Can I pick up a car in one Irish city and drop it off in another?

There may be additional charges to collect from one city and drop off in another within the same country. Some companies will not permit one way rentals from Republic of Ireland to Northern Ireland, and for one way rentals from Northern Ireland to Republic of Ireland fees vary anywhere from £100-£300. Inform Auto Europe when booking your car hire if you would like a one way rental. Remember that you may not be covered by insurance if you travel to another country without the rental company's permission.

Can I travel by car ferry?

There are many rivers throughout Ireland, so you may encounter ferry crossings on your travels. Expect to pay anywhere between €4 and €35 for foot passengers, cyclist and cars. Check with your car rental supplier before departure to make sure the vehicle is allowed to travel by ferry.

Road Sign Definitions

- Direction signs will be in blue for freeways/motorways, green for national roads and white for local roads.
- Tourist drives and places of interest are signposted in brown with white writing.
- Traffic calming – speed bumps ahead.
- In the Republic, signposts denoting distance are now in kilometres per hour. All signposts and place names are displayed in both Irish (Gaelic) and English. In Northern Ireland all signposts and limits are in miles per hour and place names are displayed in English.

Coast and Country Tour

Begin your tour from Galway city toward Connemara on R336 West, driving through towns of Spiddal, Inverin, Costello Cana and Clifden. From there, head north on N59 to Leenaun in Co. Mayo at the head of the Killary harbour and the Fjord. Enjoy the mountains, Doolough Lake and the Delphi Valley as you head further north to the town of Louisburgh. On the road east to Westport, make sure you stop at Croagh Patrick, Ireland's holy mountain and Christian pilgrimage destination.

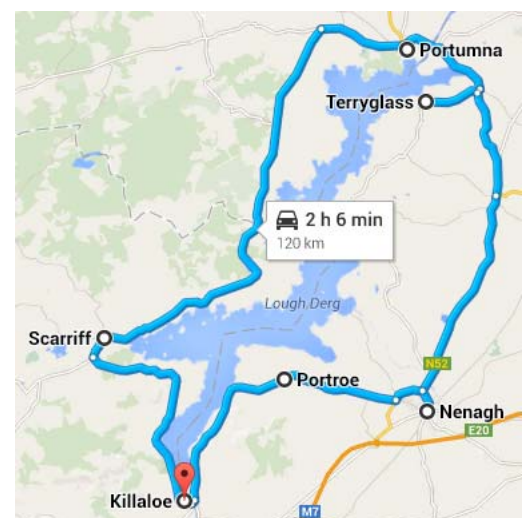

From Westport you can take a trip out to Achill Island by driving through Newport and Keel, then up to Dooagh. After you've explored the island, head back towards Mulranny and drive north to Bangor Erris to visit Ballycroy National Park. Visit the memorable Erris peninsula in the Mayo Gaeltacht. From there, take the coastal road R314 towards Ballycastle and admire in the wild coastal views on the way to Sligo and Donegal. Visit the Céide Fields in Co. Mayo, a five thousand year old farm settlement. On the return trip, drive through the towns of Castlebar, Claremorris and Tuam, and enjoy the views over Lough Conn. Please note that this drive crosses into Northern Ireland in the far north near Bridgend, County Donegal.

Lough Derg Drive, Co Clare

This is one of Ireland's less travelled routes, a 95-mile circuit around the largest lake on the River Shannon. The drive passes an assortment of charming marina villages and scenic delights along the way. Travel through Killaloe at the southern tip of the lake, on to Scarriff Bay, then continue on to Mount Shannon, one of the busiest yachting centres on Lough Derg. Stop by at Portumna at the very north of the lake to see the palatial 17th Century castle that overlooks the lake.

From there, head to the lovely village of Terryglass, then south towards the fishing and boating centre of Dromineer. On the way to Nenagh, stop to see the castle remains that date back to 1217 and the demolished county jail (spelled "gaol" in Ireland). From Nenagh, head west to Portroe for the best viewing points of the Lough Derg. Enjoy the final leg of the journey on the gentle road back to Killaloe.

The Wild Atlantic Way

Discover Ireland's newest self-drive experience, the Wild Atlantic Way, is one of the world's longest driving routes, stretching a total of 2,500 kilometres along the west coast of Ireland from Donegal to the Cork. This unbelievable coastal journey definitely warrants a spot on your bucket list. There are numerous stop-offs for the avid photographer to capture jaw-dropping views, such as along the Knockalla Coast Road. This self drive tour is breathtaking every step of the way.

Along this captivating coastal route, meander through secluded villages and towns snuggled into the coastline and discover delightful cafes and restaurants along the way where you can relish the true warmth of the Irish people first hand.

The magnificent coast of Donegal and Sigo are both perfect for experiencing the Atlantic's surfing beaches. Take time to discover the historic ruins of the 6th Century monastic settlement on Skellig Michael in Kerry. Explore the scenic Ards Forest Park in Donegal and watch the weather change from the historic Clare Island Lighthouse in Mayo.

This sign-posted route will take you off the beaten track towards more authentic discoveries, magnificent landscapes and quaint hidden gems for which Ireland is renowned!

Grand St. Patrick's Tour, Counties Down & Armagh

Delve deep into Ireland's history through Saint Patrick's Tour. Begin in the city of Armagh where you can see the Anglican and the Roman Catholic St. Patrick's Cathedrals, the County Museum and Saint Patrick's Trian. Take the Darkley Road through 'the Fews' and scenic woodlands of Keady and Newtownhamilton to Newry, where you can visit Bagenal's Castle, the Killevy Old Churches founded in 517AD and Kilnasaggart Stone. Follow the Newry Road through Rathfriland, Castlewellan and Clough, through to the town of Downpatrick. Here you'll find the Struell Wells, the first holy wells in Ireland, the remains of the Inch Abbey that date back to 1180, the Saul Church, Down Cathedral and St Patrick's grave. Head to Strangford and take the car ferry to Portaferry, then follow the Portaferry Road to Greyabbey where you'll find the splendid ruins of a Cistercian Abbey. Heading north drive on to Newtownards and see the Movilla Abbey, then follow the N21 for Bangor where you can visit the north Down Museum and Bangor Abbey.

Belfast

This beautiful Victorian city is a city reborn; where old and new stand proudly side by side to create a charm and character that is truly unique. Belfast's areas can be divided into quarters: the Cathedral quarter is the oldest part of Belfast, with cobbled streets, historic pubs and fantastic restaurants; the Titanic Quarter has an incredible maritime and industrial history and is home to the magnificent Belfast Waterfront Hall; the Gaeltacht Quarter holds the city's descriptive wall murals and is home to Irish language and culture; and the Queen's Quarter houses some of the best eateries and pubs in Belfast.

Self Drive Tours: Belfast

Belfast to Dublin

Drive from Bangor near Belfast along the A2 coast road to the seaside town of Ballywater, head west to Greyabbey, then south on the A20 to Portaferry. Take the car ferry over Strangford Lough to Downpatrick to visit St. Patrick's grave on Cathedral Hill.

Drive through Clough and on to Newcastle where the Mourne's "sweep down to the sea", then on to the fishing port of Kilkeel. Follow the A2 along the coast to Rostrevor, through Warrenpoint and along to Newry. From Newry, travel south toward Dublin, through Dundalk, stopping off at Drogheda to see the prehistoric tombs at Newgrange, Knowth and Dowth. See where St. Patrick lit the first paschal fire at Slane before continuing on to Dublin.

The Causeway Coastal Route

This is rated as one of the top 5 scenic drives in the world, running from Belfast Lough to Londonderry with an incredible mosaic of fishing villages, quiet beaches, rugged coastlines, mountains and magnificent scenery. Leave Belfast and join the Causeway Coastal Route at Newtownabbey. Enjoy the view of Belfast Lough to the right as you head further west toward the seaside town of Carrickfergus, home to the well-preserved 12th century Norman castle. Drive on through Kilroot and to Larne, the gateway to the beautiful Glens of Antrim, and follow the Antrim Coast Road where you can enjoy the breathtaking scenery.

Drive on through to the lovely town of Cushendun and Torr Head, along to Ballintoy where you can walk across the Carrick-a-Rede rope bridge spanning a 24 metre chasm. If you veer inland you can visit the world's oldest licensed distillery in the village of Bushmills. From there you can head back to the coast to the UNESCO World Heritage listed site of the Giant's Causeway. See the romantic ruins of Dunluce Castle near Bushmills, and drive on to the lively seaside resorts of Portrush and Portstewart, then to the beautiful Bann Valley and market town of Ballymoney. Visit Mussenden Temple along by Castlerock towards Limavady, then take a walk on the remote beaches at Benone or Downhill. You can then travel on through the lovely Roe Valley, through Limavady to Londonderry, the only completely walled city in the British Isles.

Stay Healthy & Stay Safe

Stay Healthy

Your comprehensive travel insurance should cover any medical costs including medical evacuation, but make sure that your insurance covers you for the whole time you'll be away and be clear on what is not included there is no reciprocal agreement between Ireland and New Zealand for visitor access to public health services. New Zealanders are therefore strongly advised to take out health insurance. In Northern Ireland, New Zealand have access to free emergency medical services, not providing for any ongoing treatment of existing health conditions.

Plan the care of pre-existing conditions before you leave. Bring your medications in their original and clearly labelled containers with a declaration from your doctor describing medical conditions and medicines needed. If you wear contacts or glasses, bring a spare pair or bring a copy of your prescription.

Stay Safe

Travelling in Ireland is not dangerous, but a level of caution should always be taken when touring in any foreign country. Most crimes tend to occur in the larger cities, where tourists can be targeted for petty crimes like pick-pocketing. Keep your valuables close to your body, avoid quiet streets out of hours and avoid making yourself a target by flashing any money or valuables. Car break-ins, theft, smash and grab and vandalism on tourists vehicles can occur, but can be prevented by keeping valuables or bags out of sight, securely locking cars or using off-street supervised parking. When travelling, employ the same safety practices you utilise at home.

Northern Ireland is currently as safe as the Republic of Ireland, however there are areas where the sectarian divide is still prominent, particularly in some parts of Belfast. Try to avoid Northern Ireland around 12 July, which is the climax of the Orange marching season, and has been known to bring tension and disruption.

In the unlikely event of theft or loss, be sure to inform all your credit card companies as soon as possible.

Money Matters

Republic of Ireland

The Euro is the local currency of the Republic of Ireland. EURO (€) = 100 cents. Notes are in denominations of €500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of €2 and €1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 cents.

Northern Ireland

The British Pound is the local currency of Northern Ireland. One Pound (£) = 100 pence. Notes are in denominations of £50, 20, 10 and 5. Coins are in denominations of £2 and £1, and 50, 20, 10, 5, 2 and 1 pence (p).

Currency Exchange

Foreign currency can be exchanged at Bureau de Change at international airports and major city centres, as well as banks, post offices and some hotels.

Banking Hours

Banks are open 10am to 4pm Monday - Wednesday and Friday, and 10am to 5pm on Thursday. In Northern Ireland bank hours are 9.30am to 5.30pm Monday to Friday.

ATMs

ATMs (Automatic Teller Machines) are located at most banks and accept most credit and debit cards.

Credit & Debit Cards

Visa, MasterCard or American Express will be widely accepted in Ireland. Most ATMs allow cash withdrawals on major credit cards and internationally branded debit cards.

Tax

Sales tax is called VAT (Value Added Tax), and is most often included in the price shown on goods. In the Republic of Ireland, the general rate of VAT is 21%, but there are rates of 13.5% for hotels, restaurants and car rentals. In Northern Ireland the VAT is 17.5% across the board.

Tipping

Tips of around 10-15% in restaurants and metered cabs are expected, unless it's already included in the total bill. Porters should be tipped around €1.50 or £1 per bag.
